

William A. Smith

HEBER CITY—William Albert Smith died at his home in Heber City, Utah on April 14, 1999, following a courageous battle with cancer.

Born in Heber City March 30, 1932, son of Joseph Albert and Ruth Turner Smith. He married heart Gwen Buehler, February 14, 1953, later solemnized in the Mantle LDS Temple. Born and raised in Heber City where he attended his earlier years of schooling. As a young man, he worked with his family in the sheep business in the mountains that he loved. Attended the U of U with a track and football scholarship, as well as going through the ROTC program graduating in 1954. Bill was proud to serve his country commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant. Specialized as an executive in the Air Defense. Major William Albert Smith retired from service at Fort Bliss Texas in 1976 after 22 years. After retirement he worked as a real estate broker for 20 years. He also volunteered for the Uinta Forest service. Active member of the LDS Church. Bill and Gwen moved back to the valley they loved. They built a retirement home, on a hill with a full view of Timpanogos in Heber City in 1992. A man of honor and integrity, he taught by precept and example the values of devotion to God, family and country.

Survivors: wife Gwen, Heber City, UT; children: Jeff and Kathy Smith, Mansfield, TX; Kelly and Evelyn Dame, Ontario, OR; Eric and Bonnie Smith, Chino Hills, CA; Dwight Smith, El Segundo, CA; 11 grandchildren. Preceded in death by his parents Bert and Ruth and a brother Gordon. Funeral services will be held Monday, April 19, 1999 at 1 p.m. in the LDS Chapel, Heber 1st Ward at 325 E. 500 N. Friends may call at the Olin-Hoopes Funeral Home (288 N.
